Kunming, capital of Yunnan Province, is the political, cultural, economic, and transportation center of Yunnan Province in southwest China. Everyone who gets there would like the city deeply. Kunming is known as "the Spring City" due to the fact that every season is like spring, and it is one of the most famous tourist destinations both in China and abroad.

We are looking forward for the fruitful Symposium and great opportunity for both the participants and exhibitors during this event.

Sincerely yours,

The ANS2018 organizing committee
